THINKS AMERICA MUST ADMIT STATE OF WAR

Paris, April 24.—American operations at Vera Cruz are likely to raise international difficulties, according to a London dispatch to The Times, unless they are regarded by admitting the existence of a state of war. It is pointed out that France endeavored to blockade Chinese ports in 1858 without declaring war, and that Great Britain protested successfully in 1895.

Another case put forward is that when Great Britain, at the outbreak of the Boer war, asserted that the operations were of a police nature against rebels, she was obliged to change her position when she found she was carrying contraband were detained.

DID HE CONFESS TO GIRL'S MURDER, SAYS JIM CONLEY

Three New Affidavits in Hearing on New Trial Petition by Leo Frank Necessitate Postponement.

JIM CONLEY CONFESSED GUILTY, SAY WITNESSES

Preacher and Negress Swear to Admission—Another Witness Tells of Seeing Girl Leave Frank's Office.

Jim Conley, the negro accused yesterday of confessing to the murder of Mary Phagan, made a sweeping denial last night to The Constitution, and declared that his counsel would be able to present evidence which would prove that the accusations were wholly false.

The negro's statement was made to a reporter for The Constitution through Attorney William M. Smith, Conley's attorney. Smith was requested to ask certain questions having direct bearing on the affidavits submitted before Judge Ben Hill by Frank's defense, in which two witnesses accuse Conley of having admitted the Phagan crime.

He declares that the negro in Conley stated through Smith that the affidavits were false in every respect, and that he had never known Annie Maude Carter, the negro, who says Conley, while in Fulton jail, confessed to her, except to see her occasionally while she was imprisoned in the Tower. He says they rarely spoke, and then only to exchange greetings.

With Establishments. Conley also stated that he would be able to show an alibi to disprove the charge of Rev. C. B. Ragdale, the minister who made an affidavit to the effect that he overheard Conley tell another negro in an alley near the Terminal station on the Monday night following the murder, that he had killed a girl at the pencil factory. Attorney Smith was asked by the reporter to make a statement regarding the new evidence which so startled those present at the hearing for a re-trial, being held before Judge Ben Hill, which was adjourned Friday morning, to give the prosecution time to form a counter showing to the new developments.

In the words of Champ Clark, I can only say: "Shoo fy! Don't bother me!"

The effect that the two strongest pieces of evidence introduced by attorneys for the defense will have on Solicitor Hugh Dorsey's fight to prevent a new trial for Leo Frank, will be in all probability, cause a second delay in the re-trial hearing that is now in progress before Judge Ben Hill.

The solicitor requested adjournment of the hearing yesterday morning so that he would have ample time and opportunity to gather evidence in support of a counter showing against three new affidavits that were presented by Frank's attorneys Friday morning.

These affidavits are from witnesses whose connection with the case was not made public until their testimony was revealed to Judge Hill. Two of them—a minister and a negro woman, swear they heard Jim Conley confess to the murder of Mary Phagan.

The third witness states she was in the pencil factory at the time Mary Phagan entered, and that she saw the girl depart from Frank's office and go down the stairway to the first floor.

These affidavits were introduced into the retrial motion as amendments. The first was made against them by the solicitor, but was defeated. Both phases of the new evidence were unearthed by Detective William J. Burns.

Solicitor Dorsey would have nothing to say for publication. He would express himself in no manner regarding the Conley confession affidavits. He intimated that the prosecution would insist upon further postponement, and that he had no doubt that he could make exhaustive investigations into the new affidavits.

Annie Maude Carter, a negro, who was once a prisoner in the Tower, who Conley is said, made the most startling of the three affidavits. She testifies that the negro prisoner had made love to her and had wanted to marry her, and that he had confessed to having slain Mary Phagan.

She swears that the negro went into the room of the minister, and that he exonerated Leo Frank completely. At first, however, she admitted that she had sought to make her believe that he and Frank were both involved in the murder, and that both had attacked the girl after she (Conley) had strangled her into unconsciousness.

Had Killed the Girl.

The affidavit from the minister—Rev. C. B. Ragdale, of Kirkwood—tells of an alleged conversation he overheard on the Monday night after Mary Phagan's death between Jim Conley and another negro in an alley near the Terminal station. He says that Conley told his black companion that he had got into trouble at the pencil plant—had killed a girl.

Conley's companion, the minister says in his document, asked Conley if anyone was in the building at the time Conley committed the crime, and Conley answered that Frank might have been in the place, but he thought not.

The third sensation is an affidavit attested to by Mrs. Maude Bailey, who swears she saw Mary Phagan come to the second floor of the pencil factory about five minutes after 12, on the day of the tragedy, go into Frank's office, remain a moment or so, emerge and then go down the stairway to the first floor.

her lines also have resumed partial service.

Numbers of shops and restaurants were opened yesterday, and crowds walked about the streets and the open places. Except for the occasional occasional patrol the city seems to have resumed almost normal conditions.

Bands from the American fleet played yesterday and attracted large crowds. The idea of providing music for the people was suggested by Captain Rush, who only a few hours before had been directing the artillery and machine gun fire against the enemy.

Large numbers of Mexicans came on Rear Admiral Fletcher today planning for the release of friends and relatives who had been made prisoners. The almost invariable reply was that all those men would be released.

The total number of prisoners taken was about 100, but many have already been released.

Refugees from Mexico City. A refugee train of fourteen cars from Mexico City, carrying 150 Americans, 100 Germans, 100 Spaniards and 100 Mexicans, left for England last night.

Refugees from the capital were arranged through the joint action of the British and German diplomatic officials with the war office. The train reached the Mexican outposts at Toluca at noon, where the details of two hours while a search was made by the Mexicans for railroad officials.

Four of whom were arrested and held until General Maas at Soledad, was communicated with and their release ordered.

About three miles from Vera Cruz, a section of track nearly a mile long was found torn up. The refugees carried their baggage to a train on the Vera Cruz and the train left for Mexico City. A detachment of Mexican troops accompanied the train.

REALLY THE FAVORITE GRADY BOND ISSUE

Committee From Pan-Hellenic of Atlanta Visits Hospital and Says Improvements Badly Needed.

At a special meeting of the Atlanta Hotel Men's association, held at the chamber of commerce building, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the Atlanta Hotel Men's association heartily joins the movement looking to the issuance of $750,000 bonds for the Grady hospital, and the support of this association and its members is hereby pledged to said movement."

There was enthusiasm at Grady bond headquarters yesterday when it was learned that the real estate board, after listening to a brief summary of a greater Grady situation by Bird Adams, had given its unqualified imprimatur to the bond issue.

The real estate board is another of the civic organizations which, according to the pessimists, was not in favor of the bonds. A short time ago, however, several such organizations, The Fulton County Medical society was among them. They were against them. Some members of the board of the hospital itself, were against them. The Catholics were against them. According to the pessimists—and there never was a much-needed city improvement that didn't breed pessimists faster than a Florida swamp breeds mosquitoes—the bonds for Greater Grady didn't have a chance.

That was a week ago. Then the Fulton County Medical association gave the bonds its indorsement. The resolution to do so was passed. A few days passed and the Atlanta Federation of Trades unions, which has about labor being against the bonds, registered their belief for the bond issue over their signatures. Thursday night, the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, which has been so long in favor of the bonds, indorsed it. Friday afternoon, the real estate board indorsed it.

Now the workers for the bonds can look at the records at headquarters with pride, and say there is scarcely a civic organization of approval of any importance whatever. There is no official seal of approval upon the plans for a greater Grady, but the supposed opposition, it can't be located. To object because it feared an increase of taxes. Whether it did not, Mr. Adams' tall calculated to dispel any such impression. And the fact that with the greater Grady plans known, they still get for the bonds whatever they want. The bond issue includes a provision for the payment of the interest on the bonds, and Mr. Adams pointed this out to his audience yesterday afternoon. When the resolution of indorsement came up for vote, there was not a dissenting voice.

Another remarkable feature of the campaign is the interest which the various women's organizations are taking in it. A special committee was called for 10 o'clock Monday morning in the University club by the executive committee of the Pan-Hellenic of Atlanta, a young woman's organization composed of 400 representatives of college societies. All of them were present. A good many are even married.

Women Examine Hospital.
A special committee of five looked over the hospital Friday afternoon. It consisted of Miss Elizabeth Kempton, Miss A. B. Ekins, Miss Elizabeth Kempton, Miss A. B. Ekins, and Miss Hester Hill. The committee, after looking the grounds over, then went to the hospital, where they were met by the superintendent of the hospital, Mr. J. H. Kempton. They were then taken to the various quarters—examining rooms, operating rooms, and the most wretched features of the hospital.

"It is awful," said Miss Kempton, "for women to have to live in such places. To look at their living quarters, to think the nurses at the hospital had committed some crime, and were punished for it, instead of being members of the noblest profession woman can enter."

NEW LOAN ASSOCIATION HAS SOME UNIQUE RULES
A new loan association, to be known as the Co-operative Investment association, with a capital of $10,000, is being organized by J. H. Kempton and C. L. Boone.

A unique feature of this company's loaning plan is that personal indorsement will not be required by its patrons. In case of the death of a customer, if it should be found that his financial condition is such that payment of his obligations would be a hardship upon him in destitute circumstances, the company has the right to cancel the obligation.

Another feature is the loan assessment of a fine in case of a customer's failure to pay on the day he is due. A department of credit adjustments will be a prominent feature of the new organization.

CAMPBELL ON STAND IN HIS OWN BEHALF
Camilla, Ga., April 24.—(Special.)—The case of state v. D. C. Campbell, charged with the murder of Harry Hare, is still in session in Mitchell superior court. Almost the entire day was spent in examining witnesses for the defense, the feature of the day's session being the statement of the defendant, which was made late this afternoon.

The statement was clear and forceful and about one hour was consumed in its delivery. Immediately after the statement the state called more witnesses in rebuttal.

Court adjourned at 6:30 o'clock and convened again at 8 o'clock for a night session. The case will probably consume most of tomorrow. The courtroom was packed with spectators today.

Great Opportunity Presented To Obtain Automobiles Free In the $25,000 Gift Contest

The Constitution believes that there are very few people who are more than a looker on an opportunity and who are alert enough to see and grasp it when it appears.

In this contest, a plan is presented in these columns, which affords just the chance these ambitious people want, and which the benefit to those taking part is only limited by their own ability.

Appropriating over twenty-five thousand dollars to forward the enterprise, The Constitution purposes to distribute that amount in valuable prizes and cash through the medium of a great circulation movement.

It costs nothing to try for any award.

No Restrictions.
There are no restrictions as to territory or age. Any woman or girl can enter; or any man or boy can enter through some lady relative or friend. This makes the field open to all. Just simply send in your name or that of a relative or friend to the contest department of The Constitution. Where it is possible, a representative of the contest department will immediately be sent to your place to explain the contest and to see how to proceed. Where this can not be done immediately, return mail will bring direct information from this department.

The management of The Constitution is responsible for this contest and every promise and obligation made by The Constitution will be strictly adhered to, and the management will see to it that every candidate has an equal chance and square deal.

In number and value, the awards offered to the public in this contest makes it well worth the while of any one who has to do with it.

You can do this—it is all gain, no loss. Write to the contest department of The Constitution and particulars will be gladly furnished.

Nomination blank can be found on editorial page of this issue. NOW IS THE TIME TO BEGIN. Do not put it off until it is too late.

Summary of Prizes.
1 Seven-passenger, Oakland Touring Car, $2,500
2 Five-passenger, Oakland Touring Car, 1,500
3 Three-passenger, Oakland Touring Car, 1,100
4 Two-passenger, Oakland Touring Car, 750
5 Player Pianos, 750

All those who do not win one of the prizes of The Constitution, will be paid a cash prize at the rate of $10 for every $100 of no subscriptions received during the contest. There will be no blank or failure to those who turn in $100 or more in new subscriptions.

But besides the appeal to humanity by this contest, the movement means that it has patriotic phases. Atlanta should have the honor of being the birthplace of the greatest city in the world.

Information Given.
If any information is desired on the subject of the bonds it can be obtained from the central committee, of which Dr. W. C. McCarthy is chairman, or from Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin, who is director.

Warring Miners Believed to Be Massed in Black Hills.
Imprisoned Company Men Released From Mine.

Trinidad, Colo., April 24.—State troops under command of Adjutant General John Chase tonight advanced toward Ludlow, after occupying Ludlow yesterday without resistance by the warring strikers. At Aguilar the militiamen released the company men imprisoned in the Empire and Southern western mines since Wednesday. All the prisoners, including the men of the Southwestern Fuel company, were said to be unharmed.

The whereabouts of the strikers who suddenly abandoned their plan of retreating the troops at Ludlow was not definitely known. It generally was believed, however, that they executed the maneuver begun early in the day and massed their forces in the Black hills two miles north of Ludlow.

The bloodless capture of the strikers' capital at Aguilar was effected several hours after a battle between the strikers and the Colorado Fuel and Iron company. This fight was between an armed force of about seventy men of the militiamen and a party of strikers.

After a brief exchange of shots, with no casualties reported, the strikers retreated. The main body of state troops soon afterwards reached Ludlow.

The territory into which state troops penetrated today and which for two days has been controlled by the strikers, extends northwest and south. At its widest point it is perhaps four miles or more wide. The zone is bounded on the south by Ludlow. On the north is the house, where a strongly fortified mine of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company offered an effective barrier. To the southwest is the Hastings canyon, where Wednesday the strikers were beaten back in a sharp brush with guards and militiamen.

Throughout this district until the arrival of the state troops the martial rule of the strikers was supreme. Except at the mine, where the business of the strikers had been carried on, the strikers had been driven to the mountains. Strikers leaders commanding a force estimated at 100 men held the mountain and showed no intention of leaving the place.

GOVERNOR SLATON THE CHIEF SPEAKER AT DECATUR SMOKER
Governor John M. Slaton was the chief speaker at the second annual smoker of the Decatur Smoker of Trade Friday night, delivering an address on "Our State Finances." The governor stressed the necessity for a better plan of financing the state, declaring that it was getting farther and farther behind all the time. He also praised the new tax law.

Others on the program were W. J. Dabney, treasurer; Mayor J. C. Hopkins, who delivered the address of welcome; H. G. Jones, M. D. Venter, who introduced Governor Slaton; Ivan the Value of Stone Mountain to This was "DeKalb County's Educational Needs and the State's Responsibility," told of "DeKalb County's Educational Needs and the State's Responsibility."

Over 150 were in attendance upon the smoker and much enthusiasm was evidenced during the evening.

NOMINATION OF NEGRO CONFIRMED BY SENATE

Vote Forced on Terrell as Municipal Judge for District of Columbia.

Washington, April 24.—The nomination of Robert M. Terrell, a negro, as municipal judge for the District of Columbia, was confirmed tonight by the senate.

The nomination had been held up for two months, being vigorously opposed by Senators Vardaman, Smith, of South Carolina, and other southerners. Tonight senators urging confirmation declined to pass Terrell's name on the list of nominations and a vote was forced.

"UNTO GOD"

"Render Unto Caesar the Things Which Are Caesar's; and Unto God the Things That Are God's"

—Matt. 22:21

"Render unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's."

Amen.

We have nothing of his.

Nineteen hundred years ago Caesar died; today, only a forgotten grave and a niche of infamy in history are his. Let him have them. Disturb him not. But unto God, our living Lord, render that which is His.

They tried to trap the Carpenter into treasonable talk. With fawning flattery slaves of Rome asked, "Shall we pay tribute to Caesar?"

He replied, "Show me the tribute money.—Whose is the image and superscription?"

"Caesar's," they answered.

Clear. Plain. Caesar's money. Marked with Caesar's face and name. Give it to him, but "Unto God the things that are God's."

What says your dollar? What read we? Not Caesar's name but God's. Our nation story is told in that inscription, "In God we trust."

Christ with His cross has led our fathers forth from the tyranny of kings and Caesars into the liberty of children of God. He has trusted us to rule ourselves. Render unto Him that which is His, our whole hearts, our whole lives.

Let us be faithful to our trust.

Beer barrels, whiskey kegs, wine bottles, brothel owners and money bags can never rule over us. We have no king, but God.

Consider our city, our home, Atlanta.

Georgia's capital.

There our representatives gathered. Led of God, moved by the suffering and sorrow of our brothers and sisters caused by the curse of drink, they enacted laws forbidding the sale of liquor within the state.

And yet, because we have failed to render wholly unto God that which is God's—because we have been faithless to our trust, day by day, in every paper we read of women, men and children sacrificed by those whose god is greed. But the end is near. We are waking.

Everywhere brothel owners are on the run.

And today in two-thirds of the area of the United States it is a crime to sell liquor. While even now in the Senate of the United States is pending legislation, urged by such bodies as the Pittsburg Board of Trade, designed to effectually drive this traffic, that fattens upon the ruin of people, from the rest of our country.

IN SUCH AN HOUR, RENDER UNTO GOD THE THINGS THAT ARE GOD'S.

Ask him who wants your vote, "Do you favor driving liquor from these United States? Will you support the bill now pending in Washington? Are you today united with others in mocking the prohibition law and making money by selling liquor through your club? It matters not that the money made is used in purchasing luxuries for you and your associates, are you thus conniving at breaking our law? And, if you so disregard the sacredness of law, should you be in public life?"

Yea, look about you.

ATLANTANS AND GEORGIANS ARE TIRED OF BEING BETRAYED.

We are a law abiding people.

These saloons and liquor selling clubs, maintained by a minority, misrepresent our City and State. Atlantans, Georgians respect law. They abhor falsehood which alone makes possible the existence of a blind tiger.

They hate greed. They despise hypocrisy.

They have intelligence. They see—Beneath brothels ruined girls—Supporting breweries wrecked lives—Paying for drinks the broken hearts of women, the blighted lives of children, murdered men—And blind tigers of the most loathsome kind taking shelter behind refined clubs.

More, people know—None of these evils could exist in city or state without the connivance of members of the Church of God; these will go; for you will obey, not men, but God.

You will heed, not the clamor of politicians and liquor sellers—You will hear the call of conscience.

And you will render unto God the things that are God's.

You will be faithful to your trust.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE MEN AND RELIGION FORWARD MOVEMENT

More Money for Roads And Less for Repairs, New Auto Club's Slogan

"More money for roads and less for repairs" is to be the slogan of the Automobile Club of Georgia in a long and determined campaign for good roads throughout the state.

Plans for the campaign were made last night by the club members who met in the rooms of the M. & M. club, Candler building. Several hundred automobile owners, the majority from Atlanta, but a good many from other cities, for the automobile club covers the entire state—listened to addresses from George D. McCutcheon, president of the club; W. T. Winn, county commissioner, and Charles L. Davis.

Club a Necessity.

Mr. McCutcheon called attention to the necessity of a state automobile club both as a protection to the automobile owner and an instrument with which to secure needed improvements.

"The membership of this club," he said, "is growing rapidly. There are 5,000 owners of motor-driven vehicles in the state of Georgia, and while we can't expect to enroll them all, we ought to enroll every one who ever takes his car outside the town where he bought it. As a matter of fact, we ought to enroll them all. Every automobilist is interested in preventing the passage of unjust laws. The Automobile Club of Georgia stands for that. We believe in good roads, we think Georgia ought to have them. To the automobilist, good roads mean the difference between getting over the ground cheaply and swiftly, and stopping at every village for repairs. County Commissioner W. T. Winn reminded the club that the American Roads Congress—the most important good roads organization in America—would hold its annual convention in Atlanta the week of Nov. 9. The club passed resolutions to co-operate with the county commissioners in entertaining the three thousand members of the congress expected.

West State Highway Commission.

Another resolution was passed endorsing the legislative efforts for a state highway commission, and pledging the support of the club. The organization also went on record as in favor of a higher automobile license provided the property tax on automobiles from the increased license fee expended for better highways. It was here that there cropped up the slogan of more money spent on road improvement meant that much less for car damages.

A nominating committee was appointed to select a statewide committee on organization, composed of one member from each county in Georgia. The members appointed are Dan S. Walraven, W. C. Mahoney and W. C. Winn, all of Atlanta; C. H. Caldwell, of Bainbridge; and J. H. Whitley, of Warrenton. The work of broader organization will begin at once.

FIRST TO ARRIVE WILL BE CARUSO AND FARRAR

They Will Reach Here Saturday Afternoon—Scott Is Due Sunday.

Gertrude Farrar and Caruso, both of whom sang Monday night, will be the advance guard this year of the Metropolitan song birds. They will arrive at 8 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Terminal station, over the Southern railroad, on the regular train. On Sunday afternoon, at the same hour, Scott and William J. Guard, the publicity representative of the Metropolitan, will arrive.

Two special trains, carrying the remainder of the singers and the conductor, will come in over the Southern railway Monday morning, April 27, at about 7 o'clock. Mrs. Gaski and Messrs. Amato, Toscanini and Whittier, upon probably will come on another train Monday.

Members of the company on the special train will be Messrs. Martin, Crisall, Gortiz, Gilly, Deseguro, Ryusak, Leonard, Rothler, Reiss, Rosel, Reschiglian and Bada, Mme. Ober, Duchene, Sparks, Case, Forin, Matt, Baid, Roberson, Stratan, VanDyck, and Conductors Heris and Hagerman. Arriving early in the week.

The two big special trains which arrive Monday morning will also bring the orchestra, ballet, business forces and a great part of the stage settings and scenery.

The sale of tickets at Phillips & Crew and Cable Piano company will continue at those two places up to 10 o'clock Saturday afternoon, at which hour the downtown sale will be permanently closed. On Monday morning the sale will reopen at the Auditorium box office at 8 o'clock, and tickets will be procurable only at the box office from then on through opera week. All persons who have made reservations and have not yet taken up their tickets will have to do so by noon this Saturday, and in the event of their failure to do so the tickets they reserved will be put back in the pot.

While the Metropolitan association is not yet ready to give out definite figures, the sales are known to be ahead of this same time last year, and indications are that there are good prospects for breaking all the records of past years.

Waycross Trainman Hurt.

Waycross, Ga., April 24.—(Special).—Falling between two freight cars at Blackhawk late today, Wrecking Crew Foreman Joe Nelson, of Waycross, was painfully injured and had a close call from serious illness.

He was knocked between the cars when the engine coupler to the car on which he was sitting. He was rushed to the Coast Line hospital here.

She Saves Her Two Children After Being Bitten Herself By Rabid Dog at Her Home

Bitten by a rabid dog, Mrs. H. H. McCowan, who lives on Marietta road, saved her two children yesterday morning by bundling them into her arms and carrying them away from the house in which the dog had run.

Both Mrs. McCowan and her husband died of the electric construction company. The animal's head was cut off and carried to the Pasteur Institute, where it was found to have been rabid. The dog was a collie pup. Mrs. McCowan had discovered it wandering on the roadside, and out of pity for it, had taken it into her home to feed it. Dearly had she almost developed symptoms of madness. Mr. McCowan, who sought to throw it into the yard, was bitten on the wrist. The dog jumped at the wife, biting and scratching her on the hand.

The children were in the room. As the dog ran wildly in their direction, the mother grabbed both in her arms and rushed them into the yard. The dog was then killed by Mr. McCowan.

Over a Year.

Robert J. Perryman, vice president of the Brown, Perryman & Green That company, of Atlanta, died Friday afternoon at Hefflin, Ala., after a lingering illness of over a year's duration.

Mr. Perryman was one of the best-known men in the wholesale hat business in the south, having been engaged in it since he first came to Atlanta about thirty years ago. He was also noted for his interest in educating children who, without assistance, could not have continued in school.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Kitchens Perryman, of Hefflin; three brothers, Frank Perryman of Atlanta, and Dave and Gus Perryman, of Hefflin, and four sisters, Mrs. James H. Little of Atlanta, Mrs. John Morgan of Hefflin, Miss Hattie Perryman of Atlanta and Miss Ella Perryman of Hefflin.

Mr. Perryman was a Shriner and the funeral services in Hefflin on Sunday afternoon will be conducted by them.
